

MAKING SH*T HAPPEN: BYPASSING / CHALLENGING STRUCTURES

Chair: Valerie Ebuwa

Panelists: Malik Nashad Sharpe, Nadine Patel, Suzy Wilson

Thank you to all those who attended the panel discussion as part of Dance Umbrella Festival 2021.

After an invigorating talk about making meaningful, sustainable and equitable change across the arts landscape, the panellists have put together a list of resources for further information, inspiration and motivation to make this sh*t happen!

GUIDES

On the Move

Information on residencies, funding, collaborations and more for artists and cultural workers going international.

Arts Admin Touring Guide

A simple, practical guide to support and empower UK-based individual artists and small companies working in theatre, dance and live art to continue to tour work across Europe.

Edinburgh Showcase Programme

Really good examples of artists articulating their practice, recommend Liz Aggiss and Project O as videos to watch to get a sense of how artists can better talk about their work.

ARTICLES

Side hustle essential: How covid brought dancers to their knees by Lyndsey Winship

Lyndsey Winship exposes the nature of freelancers having multiple hustles to sustain themselves.

Transparent policies can offer theatre freelancers the support they deserve by Lyn Gardner

Lyn Gardner shines a light on new policies that freelancers are creating and implementing in order to enable equitable working conditions.

INCLUSION AND FAIRNESS

Anti Racism Clause

Zinzi Minott's anti racism clause asks institutions and organisations to prioritise black lives by agreeing to include this clause as policy. It centres the need to listen to non-white creatives.

Alexandrina Hemsley Access Rider Template

Alexandrina Hemsley offers a template for those dealing with institutions that do not recognize invisible disabilities.

RESHAPE Network

RESHAPE is a collaborative, bottom-up research process that proposes instruments for transition towards an alternative, fairer, and unified arts ecosystem across Europe and the Southern Mediterranean.

PODCASTS

Say Your Mind by Kelechi Okafor

A fountain of knowledge and honesty. Kelechi is an example of someone that has paved her own way in the creative industries.

Creative Rebels podcast

A great podcast to inspire people to stay creative with lots of tips that could be used across multiple mediums.